

Clitheroe & DMC
Burnt House Car Trial
Sunday June 30th 2019

In 2017 I foolishly suggested at a committee night that Clitheroe & DMC should run a Car Trial. As any seasoned committee member knows the answer to this was 'Brilliant . . . Get on with it' and so the first Burnt House Car Trial was a go on a clubnight in August and run as a 'Taster' event.

I was unsure about the level of interest that a Car Trial would have for our members because the main interest of members was rallying. I therefor contacted John Rhodes at A&PMMC to see if their members might be interested in a different venue.

What I didn't anticipate was the level of interest of a Car Trial was to Clitheroe members, nor the amount of shear fun that was had by all the competitors

With it being my first attempt at running a Car Trial & it being a 'Taster' event the regs were made as simple as possible (and the same applies to this years event)

Following last years event the following was part of a much longer report about the Trial

'I spotted a fairly low key car trial being advertised on the Airedale and Pennine Showoff pages and thought I would see if the Super Saxo would be eligible! A few messages to a fro with the organiser, Maurice Ellison, from Clitheroe & DMC and full details were despatched. Basically it started at 7pm, sign posted off the A65 at Ingleton and if it was raining there would be sandwiches and a social in the pub! Nice and straight forward! We were handed our score cards and instructed to do three rounds of three hills and to have fun! All the hills were below us and when we got to the lowest one we were greeted by a Freelander coming up hill 3 with just the front wheels spinning! There was also a Series 2 Landrover attempting hill 2, again with just the front, virtually slick, tyres scabbling for grip. There were 4wd vehicles competing on a car trial!! Well, they had been converted to 2wd after having the rear propshafts removed but fair play to them, they were big vehicles to manoeuvre around the hills.

Added to this spectacle there were cars in all manners of 'stuckness!' Some were beached, some were across gulleys and others just couldn't get any traction at all! There were vans, sports cars, rally cars and pick ups! Cars were going backwards to get up hills and there were groups of people tugging and pulling at cars that couldn't get going! And all around you could hear people laughing and having a cracking time!!

It was an excellent night with lots of people having their first go at a car trial on hills that challenged all skill levels. And as it was a taster evening the whole thing was free!! Clitheroe had kept it all low key but ended up with a healthy entry and lots of smiling competitors.'
